North Kingstown Arts Council – Funding Policy

Funding Policy

The North Kingstown Arts Council is happy to provide financial support to aid nonprofits in incorporating art events/activities into their fund-raising efforts for the purpose of sustaining their organizations. Other individuals and groups requesting seed money for a project that makes a profit are asked (required) to return Arts Council funding in part or, if possible, the total amount received. Entities that use profits to distribute grants are also required to return funding, which will then be used to further expand support to other artistic projects that benefit the town and community.

The Arts Council wants all projects to be a success! To assist funding recipients in reaching their event goals, the Council will periodically hold a workshop intended to help organizers promote their events, develop budgets, acquire sponsors and advertisers, increase attendance, have fun and reduce stress! Every (new) project organizer is expected to attend one workshop.

In recognition that many art events do not make a profit, the Council requests the organizers raise money on behalf of the Arts Council either by ticket sales, donation boxes, pass the hat collection or some other way. The actual procedure for the event, including exceptions, is to be approved by the Arts Council.

We believe we can expand North Kingstown's reputation as an enjoyable and inspirational art center through volunteerism. The Council encourages funding recipients to further boost our town's vibrant arts capacity by volunteering to assist at other art endeavors. By supporting other events, individuals will also be increasing their own networks and ability to collaborate while strengthening all events.

"Pass the Hat" Policy

1. When the Arts Council provides funding for an event it is suggested there will be either Ticket Sales or other donations (A Free Will Offering) collected at the event in behalf of the Arts Council. The donations may be collected by "passing the hat" or by having a receptacle prominently displayed at the entrance or exit of the event.
 2. The actual procedure for the event including exceptions is to be approved by the N.K. Arts Council.
 3. To sell items at concessions during event you need to get a "Permit for Sale at Retail" authorized by the Town of North Kingstown.
